

BOARD SPEEDS ACTION FOR NEW HEALTH OFFICER

Terming the need for a new Public Health Officer one of the most in Wilmington today, the Board of Health, Monday night voted to request of TM Cecil Lancaster any applications for the position that he may have received.

Three applications have been received to date by the Health Board, and while they believe the Town Manager has received no others, the Board wishes to be certain before proceeding to consider the applications.

Acting Health Agent Leo LeBlanc was instructed by the Board to confer with the TM on the first possible opportunity as to other possible applicants.

Lancaster is confined to his home with a cold.

DONATIONS STILL ROLLING IN

LEAVE FOR WASHINGTON DEC 26

Operation Washington DC is almost, but not quite yet, a success, financially. A few more donations are needed to put it over the top, and send the unbeaten Wilmington Football team, and the Cheerleaders on a post-Christmas trip to Washington.

In addition to the door-to-door collections, many of Wilmington's merchants and business men have donated, and still more are expected to.

As of Tuesday night the sum of $2230 had been donated for the trip.

A breakdown shows that 1003 people gave a $1 bill, 45 gave $5, 31 gave $10, 16 gave $25, 2 gave $50, and there was one who gave $100. Other sums also given have not been listed.

Leave Tuesday

The committee in charge has found that the original estimates of $6000 for the trip, given by agents, is too high.

The entire expenses are now expected to be about $3200, but the committee is asking in order to have a safety margin, for movies or other entertainment in Washington.

Buses have been acquired by the committee, and will leave Wilmington Tuesday evening, arriving in Washington DC on Wednesday morning.

Congressman Brad Morse, and David Powers, confidential assistant to President Kennedy have made arrangements for the groups, in Washington.

The committee has, in its efforts to get the team and the cheerleaders to Washington made alternative plans, which it hopes will not be used.

If only $2700 is collected, for instance, half a day and one night will have to be curtailed from the trip.

As things are planned, the youngsters, who will be suitably chaperoned, will return to

Christmas 1961

And lo the star which they saw in the East went before them till it stood over where the young child was—they rejoiced with exceeding great joy and when they saw the young child, with Mary, his mother, fell down and worshipped him.” The birth of Christ brought salvation and the love of mankind to the world. Let us pray to our Heavenly Father, as we honor the natal day of the Saviour, to imbue us with the faith, charity and courage of the Redeemer. Let us ask Him to help us to be steadfast in our faith, to overcome fear and to defend our right to worship against those who would destroy it. Let us pray to Him to bestow Divine guidance, wisdom and courage upon the leaders of free peoples, so that we may one day truly achieve “Peace On Earth.”

THE TRICK WAS DIRTIER THAN IT SEEMED

The Wilmington gendarmes have a pretty good idea, they say, of who the individual was who called in at 7:45 Friday morning, to say that a bomb was planted in Wilmington High School, and it may well be that said individual may still end up looking out between the bars.

It was a foolish moronic stunt, and even though a few children were gleeful at the news of having a "day off" they may well be singing a different song before the year is over, for Supt. of Schools Harold Shea says that the pupils will make up for that last day - if he has to hold school on a Saturday.

The children stood outside for nearly an hour, before being sent home when it couldn't be proven immediately that there was no bomb in the building.

That hoax cost the town a pretty penny, and without accomplishing a thing. In addition to the time of the Fire and Police Departments there was the pay of the teachers, including substitutes, and there was a lot of food prepared, for the children's lunches, that had to be thrown away. And, if there is to be a school day some Saturday there will be still more expense.

used to look out the window at the building across the street, which is now Altman's Market.

There was a lamp in the window. That we can remember, but we have no other first hand knowledge of what was in that store, because as a very young boy we never got inside. The lamp however, was a thing of beauty, one of those with a spherical glass globe around the chimney - a globe decorated with pink flowers and green leaves. We have no particular reason to remember that lamp, but we have never forgotten it.

That store was the headquarters of Harry Ames, retired Thespian. Harry, with his mother, founded the Ames News Company, and in keeping with his past profession Harry was just about the finest bit of sartorial splendor in the Town of Wilmington. He never appeared without spats, and when outside there was always a jauntily cocked derby, and yellow gloves.

If Harry ever appeared at his little emporium in the morning without freshly shaved jowls we think there would have been a revolution in Wilmington before the sun set that day.

Anyway, Mr Ames accomplished a minor feat in those days, by becoming the Wilmington sales-agent for the Boston newspapers.

Wilmington then had a population of somewhere around 1750 people, but the long bearded and/or mustachioed gentlemen who hung around Hudson's Corner (i.e. Main and Church St) nodded their heads in agreement, when they heard of Harry's feat. That agency, they said, was going to be really worth something when Wilmington got a few more thousand people.

Last week the present owner of the Ames News Company gave up his agency of Boston newspapers and if you want to buy a Boston paper you have to go to the Wilmington Center Pharmacy.

Mr. Zeoli, "Tony" to everyone, decided that it wasn't worth the candle, selling Boston papers because there were too many light fingered people around. No matter how early he got down to his store in the morning papers had been taken, and no money left. The losses that he cited, from newspaper and/or money thefts, early in the morning, were fantastic, and Tony was in a fair way of becoming a sort of charitable enterprise.

So the Valley News Company, who are the Boston newspaper agents for this part of the country, asked Tony if he would object to a newspaper stand outside his building - the kind where you take the paper, and put some money in a slot.

Tony didn't object, and one day last week the Honor-Stand was put up.

An employee of the Valley News Company sat in a parked car, across the street, next morning, to watch.

Everyone who took a paper also put money in the slot. At the end of an hour the can under the slot was emptied, and it was $1.56 short. The way Valley News figures it, the people were putting in pennies, and pretending that said pennies were nickles and dimes.

We don't know if there is a moral to this story, but perhaps those long bearded and/or mustachioed gentlemen weren't so right, after all.

BRAD MORSE APPOINTS ACADEMY BOARD

Congressman Brad Morse announced this week the appointment of an impartial Military Academy Advisory Board, which is to meet tomorrow and Saturday to interview eligible applicants for the Congressman's nominations to West Point, Annapolis, the Air Force Academy and the Merchant Marine Academy at King's Point, NY.

Dr. Andrew J. Torrielli of Belmont is to be the chairman, Professor Robert B. Kent of Lexington, a member of the law faculty of the Boston University Law School, and Atty Howard Hall of Lowell will also serve on the board.

The Academy Advisory Board will make final recommendations to the Congressman for appointment to the service academies. Those young men who have successfully completed the preliminary aptitude examination and have met the stringent physical standards will be interviewed by the Board in the Congressman's Lowell Office this week.

The Congressman indicated that his final selections will be announced in mid-January.

Wilmington police report that more than ever Christmas decorations are being stolen by petty thieves.

The thefts started last week, on Woburn Street, and have spread to all parts of town.

New lights on the Roman House of the School Department were molested Tuesday evening, just one of several such instances.

Silver Lake

The police, too, were worrying about Silver Lake, and keeping a wary eye for children who might wander out on the ice. The lake froze over last Saturday, and presents a tempting target for would-be skaters.

Anyone who ventures on the lake before it has been declared safe is risking his life, the Chief of Police has stated. The Police Department will give notice when the ice is safe for children.

Christmas Lights

Meanwhile Wilmington's Christmas lighting program is better than ever before.

With $1000 expended by the Wilmington Chamber of Commerce and with private merchants making substantial contributions to lighting at their stores, the business sections are decorated as never before.

Large strings of lights are across Main Street at Wilmington Square, and at Silver Lake and also across Middlesex Ave. in North Wilmington Center, put up by the Chamber of Commerce.

The DeMoulas Shopping Center is a blaze of light, and in East Wilmington at Lucci's Market there is quite a display.

The Wilmington Firemen's Association, as usual, has added to the lighting of the Fire Station, and it is a blaze of tastefully decorated colors. Each year the Association adds about $100 in more lights and equipment.

Baldwin Alley, so-called, (Jones Ave and Faulkner Ave) is again the most brilliantly lit up private section of town as all the inhabitants of the area try to outdo each other in illumination.

One of the finest appearing homes, among the more recent ones in Wilmington, is that of Mr and Mrs William Webb, on Lowell Street near Cross St.

In addition to decorating their home the Webbs have put a series of light blue lights on a fence in back of the house which sets off the whole display very nicely.

Christmas Festival

The outstanding new event of the Christmas Season was in the School Department sponsored Christmas Festival.

A wonderful two hour program of Christmas music, to a capacity filled Auditorium Monday evening had to be repeated Tuesday evening, by popular request, again to a near capacity audience.

The program is to be repeated tomorrow morning, for the High School children, after which they will start their annual Christmas vacation.

Christmas 1961 is having its due share of Christmas parties with the local Santa Claus Helper, George Spanos, being a busy man. George attended 3 Christmas parties last Sunday, and has been averaging two a day for some time.

One little five year old, George Colt of Dorothy Ave. made his own discovery about Santa Claus during the past week.

George was attending a party for the Congregational Church children, and the Superintendent told Santa that George was the son of a couple who spoke Greek.

When George came up to confide his wishes to Santa he learned that Santa can speak in languages other than English.

'Oh', he said in the Greek language, 'Can Santa Claus talk Greek?'

'Of course he can!' Santa confided, in the same language

Bernard McMahon, Principal of Wilmington High School, was one of 30 New England High School principals who were guests of the US Air Force Academy, last week.

The principals inspected the academy in its entirety, and were briefed on admission programs, academics and scholastics, and athletic programs.

McMahon and the other 29 left Bedford Air Force Base on Dec. 13th at 1:30 pm in a C119, commonly known as a Flying Box Car. Each man had to wear flying clothes and a parachute. They spent Wednesday night at Scott Air Force Base, Belleville, Illinois, and flew on in the morning to Peterson Air Force Base, at Colorado Springs, from whence they travelled the last 20 miles by bus.

They left Peterson AFB at 8am Friday, and with a stopover at Scott AFB for fuel, flew on to Bedford, arriving there after a 10 hour flight.

It wasn't until Mr. McMahon arrived home that he learned that Wilmington High School had been closed all day Friday because of a bomb hoax.

RESUSCITATION EFFORT BY WILMINGTON COP WAS TOO LATE

Personal 'mouth to mouth' breathing, by Officer Charles Dolan, in an effort to revive the life of Homer Carson, a Tewksbury resident, failed, last Saturday, to revive the man. He was pronounced dead on arrival at the Lowell General Hospital.

Carson, who was 50 years old, dropped dead in the office of the Wilmington Grain Company on Main Street.

Officers Dolan and Mercier responded to the emergency call, and Dolan administered the latest known methods of first aid, until the arrival of the Fire Department resuscitator.

NO MERCY TO HOAX CALLER VOWS LYNCH

No mercy will be shown to the individual who phoned in a 'bomb' alarm, to the Wilmington Police, last Friday, according to Wilmington Police Chief Paul Lynch. The call, made at 7:45 am resulted in 1500 students having to stand around in the cold outside for nearly an hour, at the high school, before being dismissed. It was taken by Officer Charles Dolan, and warned that a bomb had been placed in the High School.

Lynch, Tuesday morning in his office, pointed out that the penalty for knowingly transmitting false information relative to explosive or other substances which results in 'anxiety, unrest, fear, or personal discomfort' is not more than 10 years in State Prison, or a $1000 fine, or both.

And, says Lynch, if he catches the person responsible he will ask for the maximum penalty and maximum fine.

LANCASTER MEN'S CHORUS AT METHODIST CHURCH

The famed Lancaster Men's Church is to present a program of religious music, appropriate for the Christmas season, in the Wilmington Methodist Church, Sunday night at 8pm.

The concert group is to sing in the sanctuary of the church. Following the concert there will be a period of fellowship and refreshment in the fellowship hall of the church. The public is cordially invited.

ST DOROTHY'S CHURCH

Regular Sunday Masses will be celebrated on Christmas Day, in Saint Dorothy's Church, and a Special Mass will be celebrated at 5 pm by the Pastor, Father Joseph Leahy.

The regular Masses will be at 6:15 am., 7:30 am, 9 am, 10:30 am and 11:45am.

A Solemn High Mass will be celebrated at midnight on Christmas Eve, with the Rev. Father Leahy as Celebrant, assisted by Fathers McNeil and Kelliher.
